MISS COCK TELLS OF SICILY AND ISLANDS

Miss Marion Cock of Westchester, Pa., told members of the Rock Island Woman's club at the November meeting in Masonic temple, Saturday, of her interesting experiences and travels in Sicily and the islands of the Aegean sea. The lecture was illustrated with beautifully colored slides and she showed a great many unusual pictures of scenes in the land that contains so much of history and interest. She tells entertainingly of her travels and weaves in a good supply of humor that with the historical significance of her talk keeps her audience very attentive and interested. She spoke especially of the architectural peculiarities of the southern country and through it illustrated the history of the islands.

The business session preceding the lecture was occupied with a number of reports, chairman of the various departments telling of the work being done. Mrs. C. K. Mixer for the civic department, announced that Mrs. Frederick A. Dow, general federation state secretary, would speak in Masonic temple Dec. 10 on "Civic Ideals in Club Work," and invited members of the club to hear her. Mrs. Charles L. Thompson for the state department, Mrs. B. J. Lachner for the music department, and Mrs. C. H. Gaster for the social service department, each submitted her report. Mrs. Gaster proposed a resolution, which was heartily endorsed, that the members of the club individually and collectively do their Christmas shopping early and that the merchants be asked to close their stores Christmas eve at 6 o'clock that the people employed in them may have a real Christmas eve at home.

Mrs. C. K. Mixer told briefly and concisely of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association sessions held in Peoria in October, which she attended as delegate from the club. Miss Rosabel Stewart gave a short report of the Fourteenth District Federation of Women's clubs held in October at Alledo.

Mrs. Hugh E. Curtis, chairman of the revisions committee, submitted for consideration at the next meeting a revision of section one of article seven of the by-laws making it possible to appoint the program committee in January instead of June as heretofore in order to enable the committee better opportunity to prepare the year's program and to place the year book in the hands of the members at an earlier date.

Mrs. M. C. Rice, corresponding secretary, read notes of thanks from the Davenport and Alledo clubs for the invitation to the address given Nov. 4.

REMARKABLE CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind, I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."

Mrs. Josie Ham, R. F. D. 1, Box 22, Shamrock, Missouri.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: While away visiting last summer I met a young man who is 19 years old. He was very nice to me while I was there and I liked him better than any I ever met. He seemed to think quite a bit of me, too.

(2) When I returned home I sent him a card. Was that the proper thing to do?

(3) After about two weeks he wrote me a letter. How long should I have waited to answer this letter?

(4) It has been two weeks since I answered it and I have not as yet received an answer. How long should I wait to answer a girl's letter?

(5) I am 16 years old and this is the first boy friend I have ever corresponded with. He is a country school teacher and appears to be a gentleman. Am I too young to correspond with a boy friend if my parents do not object?

(6) If the boy helped to entertain you by taking you places, it was all right to show that you appreciated it by writing a card. A girl, however, does not send a boy a card as a rule unless he asks her to write.

(7) You should have waited at least two weeks.

(8) He is not under any obligation to write at all and so can take as long as he likes to answer you.

(9) No.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 18 years old. When I was a little girl we lived neighbors to some people who had a boy one year my senior. I fell in love with this boy. About a year ago he left town. He wrote to me at least once a week, and he always told me that he loved me. My mother took a dislike to him and would never let me go with him. About a week ago he came back to this town and asked me to go to a show with him. My mother would not let me. What would you advise me to do? I love this boy and can never be happy away from him. Do you think it would be all right for me to run away from home and be married? I am the only child.

ROSEMARY.

Years of experience have taught your mother to judge character. Respect her judgment and give up the boy.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young man 24 years of age and I went with a very nice girl of my own age when I was working in her home town. I loved her dearly and she loved me. Then she went to work in another town and she wrote to me. I answered her letters right away. Then I left town to work in another town and I wrote to her from there. She wrote to me and asked me to marry her and I said I would and asked her to come where I was. She came and I bought an engagement ring. She had to go back and wrote that she got back all right. I wrote back, but I never got an answer. What can I do to get her love back? We never had any words between us. BROKEN HEARTED.

Write the girl a letter and have it registered. Then you will get a receipt showing whether or not she received the letter. If she does not answer go to the town where she is and find out what is wrong. The chances are that she has lost interest in you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a young lady with brown hair, blue eyes and a light complexion. What colors would suit me best?

(2) What is nice to get your fiancé for Christmas?

(3) Pink, light and dark blue, brown and old rose.

(4) Cuff-links or a tie pin.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Should we give a man teacher who was our teacher last year a present for Christmas this year, although he is not our teacher now?

(2) Where can we get information about learning to crochet?

THANKFUL SISTERS.

(1) No.

(2) Ask at a fancy work counter in a department store.

If "Blonde and Brunette" send a stamped and addressed envelope I will reply to them.
